

BEAUFORT PARK HOTEL

The Beaufort Park Hotel is the perfect venue for your special day.

"We have just had the best day ever at the Beaufort Park Hotel for our wedding on the 27-07-19...."
Rachael & Mathew

"My Wife and I got married at the Beaufort Park on 20/07/2019, we looked at other venues for our special day but we both felt so welcome and that nothing we wanted was going to be a problem! The staff from start to finish were absolutely brilliant ..."
Sarah & Paul

"We had the best day at Beaufort Park! Our guests all had a brilliant time..."
Emily & Nick 2018

WELCOME TO...

The Beaufort Park Hotel

The Beaufort Park Hotel is a wedding and events venue situated in a rural village location, just outside the market town of Mold and conveniently close to the border between Wales and England. A privately owned, family run company and we are proud to have family values at the heart and to have flexibility to cater for your own individual wishes.

Our friendly team have many years of experience in looking after every detail for your wedding day and would be delighted to discuss your own ideas and plans, from menus to room layouts. Every wedding can be specially personalised just for you and your partner, or why not take advantage of one of our inclusive packages? From an intimate group of close family and friends, to a larger celebration of up to 250 guests, we have the perfect function room for both your wedding ceremony and reception.

Our team of chefs have created delicious home cooked wedding breakfasts, luxury afternoon teas and evening buffets which will have your guests complimenting your choice of wedding venue for many years to come.

The lawns and gardens provide a beautiful setting for your perfect garden ceremony. (Weather permitting of course), as well as a great space for canapés and drinks receptions, and an amazing back drop for your memorable photographs.

At the end of the day, spend your wedding night in one of our bridal suites with Jacuzzi bathrooms. These can also be booked for the night prior to your wedding to ensure you start your day fully relaxed and looking forward to the day ahead. With 105 en suite bedrooms and special accommodation rates available, including delicious Welsh breakfast, your guests can make the most of their time here by staying longer to explore this amazing area.

With everything in one place, and competitive prices there is no need to go anywhere else.

We believe that every wedding is different and that this is Your Day! Our wedding co-ordinators will be delighted to discuss your ideas. ■
